"The Rt. Hon. Lord Dyson"

Master of the Rolls & Head of Civil Justice

Speaking on

'Arbitration after Brussels I Reform'

The Right Honourable Lord Dyson, we are proud to say is a Yorkshireman, Master of the Rolls, the Head of Civil Justice, the second most senior judicial position in England and Wales, after the Lord Chief Justice. Lord Dyson was educated at Leeds Grammar School and Wadham College, Oxford. Called to the bar (Middle Temple) in 1968. He was made a bencher for Middle Temple in 1990. Appointed as a Queen's Counsel in 1980, first judicial appointment as a Recorder held between 1986 and 1993. Appointed as a Judge of the High Court of Justice for 1993-2001. Also the Presiding Judge for the TCC between 1998 and 2001. In 2001 appointed as a Lord Justice of Appeal. Lord Dyson was appointed Justice of the Supreme Court in April 2010. He was the second Justice to be appointed to that court directly. It was announced in August 2012 that he would succeed Lord Neuberger of Abbotsbury as Master of the Rolls. Since 1998 he has been a Fellow Honorary of the Society of Advanced Legal Studies and of the Hebrew University of Jerusalem in 2004
